To Our First

Bi-District Bilingual Worship Service

When: Sunday, February 25, 2007
5:30 pm Gathering Music
6:00 pm Worship

Where: First United Methodist Church
Fort Worth, Wesley Hall

This service was envisioned as a means to bring both the Spanish-speaking and English-speaking communities together as well as the two districts. The service will highlight speaker Rev. Dr. Elaine Robinson, Pastor of Nueva Vida United Methodist Church in the Rio Grande Conference and Associate Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies at Brite Divinity School, TCU. Gathering music will be led by Aliento de Vida, the praise band from El Buen Samaritano UMC. A reception immediately following will provide pan dulce (sweet bread) and chocolate caliente (hot chocolate). The service is sponsored by Mid-Cities and Fort Worth District Committees on Hispanic Ministries.
