Who Should Attend:

- Pastors, Leadership Teams, and Laity
 - Youth, Young Adults, and Adults
 - Seminararians
- (No Childcare Provided)

Desired Outcomes:

- > Each church will be stronger and better able to think through effective, intentional ways to connect people to the Body of Christ.
- > Each church will address the question—How is God at work in my church and community?
- > Each church will start at least one new small group.
- > Each church will more clearly understand its mission or begin to engage a process in order to discern its mission.

Plenary Leader:

Rev. Kennedy Jones assembled a small group of Bible believers in 1990 in support of a mission to build a church. With the establishment of the Greater Community Missionary Baptist Church, he became the founding Pastor with about 50 members. In less than sixteen years of serving the community, the membership grew to over 1500 members, to include a host of ministries and two services in two locations to accommodate worshippers. Pastor Jones married his college sweetheart whom he met in 1982, Sis. Elaine Jones. He is the father of two children, daughter, Kendra Alane and a son, Kennedy Andreas.

Presenters:

Barbara C. Howard has been children's coordinator for Central Texas Conference, directed children's programs, and served as Director of Education and Children's Ministry at St. Barnabas UMC. Currently, she is Executive Director of the Laura Edwards Christian Early Learning Center in Waco. Barbara is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan University and TCU's Brite Divinity School.

Helen Crowder is a member of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. She has served as the Director of Christian Education for the Dallas/Ft. Worth Region of the CME Church, and is currently a member of the CME General Connectional Board. She has over 40 years of professional experience working with children, youth, young adults, and adults. She is a graduate of Wiley College in Marshall, TX and has done graduate work at Texas Christian University Fort Worth.

Dr. Clifton O. Howard has served the Central Texas Conference for nearly 30 years as a pastor, district superintendent, and now as pastor of St. Andrews UMC, Arlington. He is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan College, Southwestern Theological Seminary and TCU's Brite Divinity School.

Pastor Ramon F. Smith is originally from Mississippi where he earned two undergraduate degrees from Mississippi State University, December 2002. Ramon is a Provisional Elder in the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. Ramon received his Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University on May 16, 2009. He currently lives in Fort Worth with his wife Gabrielle.
