Our Conference Youth in Action

Among the students representing the CTC at the Global Convocation this month in Germany, two are posting details of their experiences on Facebook. Centennial Celebration Makes $$ Adjustment for Students

At its meeting last weekend, the Centennial Celebration Committee agreed that our young people (students) are too important for us to let a dinner ticket stand in the way of their participation at the Centennial Celebration event Oct. 23 at the Will Rogers Memorial Complex in Fort Worth. While adult tickets remain at $20 and children under 7 at $5 for hotdog at beverage, student tickets will now be offered at $10. (The ticket fee covers the BBQ lunch and helps to cover the facilities and large screen/technology costs.) For details about the event, to order tickets and register a historical display table, visit www.ctcumc.org and click on the Centennial logo. Entertainment throughout the day will include some of our students' favorite local praise and rock bands, and several students will share their ideas for the future during the program time.

3 Cheers for Hutto Discovery, Alvarado & Meadowbrook

The U.S. Commerce Association has selected Hutto (Discovery) UMC for the 2010 Best of Hutto Award in the Places Of Worship category. In recognition of this achievement, a 2010 Best of Hutto Award has been designed and displayed at the church. It's no wonder that Pastor Paul Gravley would receive such kudos as the following: "Brother Paul, We attended your church a few times while living in Round Rock before moving back to Georgia ... You have been on our hearts lately and we wanted to tell you that you are an awesome pastor and we sincerely enjoyed the messages, comfort and fellowship at Hutto Discovery. It is the standard that we hold all other congregations and pastors to. We pray for continued blessings for you, your family and your congregation."

First UMC of Alvarado was awarded the Certified Welcoming Congregation designation by UM Communications and members are determined to continue their work toward radical hospitality. According to Jo Ann Walker, chair of the church's Welcoming Congregation Work Area, the church is sponsoring a "Welcome Home Sunday" on Sept. 5 with a former pastor giving the message and the Blue Grass gospel group "No Turning Back" providing special music. Everyone who has been a part of this congregation in the past, including lay and clergy, or is a part of this congregation now, or want to see if they would like to be a part of this congregation, is encouraged to attend and help celebrate having a Methodist congregation in Alvarado for 147 years. Coffee and registration begin at 9:15 a.m., worship at 10:30 a.m., lunch at 12 noon.

Meadowbrook UMC in Fort Worth is debt free! Members paid off the note on their new Community Life Center building project and celebrated with a Debt Retirement slideshow set to music/video. Share their joy by checking out the video at <http://www.mbrookumc.org>.

John Beckling, III Shares New Vision for Chrysalis Journey #16

The CTC Chrysalis Journey #16 will be Aug. 19-21 at First UMC in Early (Brownwood District). This is an Emmaus program for young adults ages 18-28. Online Safe Sanctuary Training Available in Mid-August

The CTC now has an online Safe Sanctuaries Training for local church leaders and volunteers who will be working with children, youth and vulnerable adults. This course is not meant to replace the local church’s face-to-face training. Rather, it is hoped that this will be an option for those who, for any reason, are unable to attend the regularly scheduled training a local church provides. The conference estimates that it will require about four to six hours to complete the online training, but those who wish to complete their training online will have up to one month to complete it at their own pace and on their preferred schedule. Upon completion, the participant will be able to print a certificate to present to their Safe Sanctuaries coordinator or the equivalent in their local church. The person who chooses this training will need the book Safe Sanctuaries by Joy Melton to be able to successfully complete it. Most local churches have this book, but it can be purchased through the Cokesbury store or at www.cokesbury.com. The first scheduled opportunity to take the online course will begin on Aug. 15, and it should be completed by Sept. 15. For more information, contact Karen Granderson at 817-877-5222, 800-460-8622 or Karen@ctcumc.org.

Are You a Potential Centennial Church?

Tapping into this year’s centennial theme — the 100th anniversary of the CTC — a “Centennial Church” will be a designation given to congregations reaching certain achievements and will be celebrated at the 2011 Annual Conference June 5-8 in Waco. Check out the revised Point System list and other details at www.ctcumc.org. Between Sept. 1, 2010 and May 1, 2011, a church may select challenges from the list and will receive the designation of Centennial Church with a score of 100.

Strengthening Families in the Local Church — Oct. 16

Registration is $12 before Oct. 1, $15 from Oct. 1-15, and $20 at the door. The goal is to provide opportunities for teachers, pastors and other church leaders to review and understand that teaching parenting skills is possible in their local setting. Keynote speaker Dr. Katie Long will address the theological rationale for the church to teach parents how to raise their children. Following that presentation, participants may choose up to three workshops on curriculum for the local church. Each of the workshops will provide information and resources that local church leaders can use to provide excellent training for parents and leaders who want to raise healthy, happy, responsible children. This conference is intended to increase spiritual growth, transform existing churches and help develop a whole new generation of principled Christian leaders. Check the Conference website (www.ctcumc.org) for more details. The registration brochure and more information about these workshops and leaders can be found from the calendar or on the Nurture Council, Marriage and Family page.

Stuck Churches

Sally Morganthaler, an author, worship leader, speaker and one of the leaders in the Emergent movement, expresses her views on stuck churches and how to move them into the future. She addresses some of the dynamics in a local church that may be preventing real ministry to take place. Check out the video clip at

When Christians Get It Wrong

Adam Hamilton's latest book, When Christians Get It Wrong, tackles the issues that are keeping young adults away from the church and demonstrates what Christianity is supposed to look like. Chapters include: When Christians Are Unchristian; Christians, Science, and Politics; When Speaking of Other Religions; When Bad Things Happen; In Dealing with Homosexuality; and When Christians Get it Right. Nashville Agency Seeks Adults Who Love Scouting

The UM Office of Scouting Ministries seeks advocates in CTC churches who are interested in becoming "scouting ministry specialists" and to help in establishing and expanding scouting ministry opportunities. Several other conference areas have already participated, and now the Office of Scouting Ministries wants to test the effectiveness of "scouting ministry specialists" in this area. "During a time when there is an increasing need to mentor boys and young men, scouting provides the ideal venue to do just that," states Joseph Boatman, president of the UM Men and acting scouting coordinator for the CTC. Pastors are asked to provide some sort of vetting process before nominating volunteers from their church. Volunteer specialists will provide neighboring churches with information about the Programs of Religious Activities with Youth (PRAY), training opportunities, resources for Scout Sunday and various awards for young people and adults. Scouting ministry specialists will also help churches enrich their relationship with existing scout units. "Too frequently, churches treat troops as if they are just renting space instead of being a vital part of their ministry," said Larry Coppock national director of scouting ministries. Fifty percent of the scouts in troops chartered by UM churches are unchurched and might benefit from a closer relationship. For further information about becoming/nominating a scouting ministry specialist, contact LaNisha Sayles at lsayles@gcumm.org or 866-297-4312.

Agencies Receive Poor Grades on Mission

An article by UMNS says UM general agencies rate below average in fulfilling the church's mission to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." A comprehensive study of church structures also found that agencies often fail to collaborate with each other and their boards are too large and meet too infrequently to provide effective oversight. "The agencies are a cacophony of voices," said the report commissioned by the denomination's Call to Action Steering Team. "Their 'brands and communications compete with one another' and result in confusion and dilution of the impact at the annual conference and local church levels." In short, the autonomous organization structure of the agencies has lessened their value to the church, according to the "Operational Assessment of the Connectional Church." For these and more resources, contact Carol Roszell at 817-877-5222 or 800-460-8622. In an effort to be as accommodating as possible to our users, old favorites that have been re-released on DVD have been obtained. Here are two recent acquisitions:

The Beverly Hillbillies Bible Study (or The Gospel According to Granny) Now on DVD! The Beverly Hillbillies Bible Study focuses on a comical clash between morals versus materialism! Join Uncle Jed, Granny, Jethro and Elly May as they try to show Mr. Drysdale the banker that the worth of a person does not depend on his bank account! This hilarious study highlights a simple family in a world obsessed with money that just want to stay true to their humble roots and values! Sound familiar? "In retrospect they seem downright progressive, those counterculture Clampetts. The Beverly Hillbillies continues to tweak a foolish modern world that the Clampetts occupied without losing their souls. The Hillbillies look smarter with every passing season. More than ever, the joke is on the rest of us." Associated Press

The Lucy Show Bible Study . Now on DVD! Why do we love Lucy? As The Lucy Show Bible Study shows us, no matter how much trouble she gets into, she always winds up on top by grace. See mercy at work with Mr. Mooney - where mercy really needs to work! See kindness at home with Mary Jane, as she helps with the next crazy plan! And see generosity in every walk of life with Lucy! Come on in to The Lucy Show Bible Study - and don't forget to bring your own (slightly) wacky best friends!
