News Briefs — The Conference

Deadline for Lay Delegate Information Forms Extended — March 31

Since the completed Lay Delegate Information Forms will only be available online, to view and print, the deadline for submitting a form is extended to March 31. Completed forms will then be compiled in a booklet format and mailed to lay members of the Annual Conference. If you, or someone you know, feel God's call to serve as a delegate to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference(s) a completed Lay Delegate Information Form needs to be submitted by each person to be included on the ballot at Annual Conference this year. The form is available on the Conference website (www.ctcumc.org) at the Annual Conference 2011 tab on the left side of the home page. The form may be submitted online or downloaded and printed to send a hard copy by mail. Please follow the instructions on the form.

Imagine No Malaria Lenten Devotional

With the Conference's emphasis on Imagine No Malaria, this opportunity for daily Lenten devotionals may be one way that we individually and collectively stay focused on the reason why it is so important to beat this dreaded disease.

Every day, thousands of families in Africa lose loved ones because of malaria. As we celebrate the season of Lent, we invite you to be renewed through the Imagine No Malaria Lenten Devotional. (Sign up for the daily devotionals at http://www.imagenomalaria.org/site/c.4dIBILOnGalQE/b.6593819/k.63C2/Imagine_No_Malaria_Lenten_Devotional.htm?tr=y&auid=7867024). This spiritual resource will be sent via e-mail and provide a daily centering moment for each of the 40 days of Lent, connecting each of us with the people of Africa.

NBC Special Focuses Malaria / Ask Your Local Station to Air It

On both sides of the ocean, people are working to end a disease that takes the life of a child every 45 seconds. An NBC special TV program, "A Killer in the Dark: An Extraordinary Effort to Combat Malaria" (<http://www.interfaithbroadcasting.com/program.aspx?PID=341&tr=y&auid=7887837>) discusses efforts being undertaken by UMs and others to achieve this goal. Presented by the National Council of Churches and produced by UM Communications, the program will be available to local NBC affiliates starting May 1. Church members can contact their local stations and ask them to schedule "A Killer in the Dark."

Great Opportunities This Week and Next:

Training for Developing Hispanic-Latino Ministries-Module 1 — March 13-18 The Lay Missioner and Pastor/Mentor Training for Developing Hispanic-Latino Ministry – Module I (bilingual) will be held March 13-18 at Perkins School of Theology's Prothro Hall in Dallas. This training is for laypersons and their pastors/mentors who wish to participate in Hispanic/Latino ministries as a part of the National Plan for Hispanic/Latino Ministry. Module I training is an integral part of the national plan and provides participants with the experience of practical curriculum and guidelines for use in the development of ministries with Hispanics/Latinos. The contact for more details and to register is Cristina Uranga in the Mexican American office at curanga@smu.edu or 214-768-2265.

Encounter Faith: Online Bible Study — March 14 Start Up Encounter Faith is the UMC's Rethink Church first online Bible study. Beginning March 14, participants will find this a place to engage others about relevant topics and how they relate to the Christian faith. Jacob Armstrong will facilitate this 6-week series through a webinar, podcast and by engaging comment. Learn more about Armstrong at www.rethinkchurch.org/jacobarmstrong. There will be free resources for download (10-minute weekly webinars and podcasts) to use in a local setting. If you are following this series in a local church setting, you will want to purchase the full FaithLink curriculum at www.cokesbury.com/faithlink. Prepare now by setting up your free user profile at Rethinkchurch.org and by sharing this site with others.

CCIA Offers Clergy Support

Dr. Gary Kindley continues to offer counseling sessions without cost to clergy and their families. CCIA (Counseling, Consulting & Inspiration Associates, LLC) is now in its 4th year and continues its mission to "Strengthen Relationships, Increase Effectiveness, Develop Leadership" with the clergy and laity, non-profits, businesses and congregations that it serves. CCIA offices are located in Dallas (Lemmon Ave., 1 block N of Oak Lawn) with day, evening and weekend appointments available. Call 817-312-9919 or visit www.drgk.org or www.cciadallas.org.

Clergy Pre-Retirement Seminar — March 31

The CTC Board of Pensions will conduct a Clergy Pre-Retirement Seminar on Thursday, March 31, at St. Luke UMC (3200 Denton Hwy, Haltom City 76117) beginning at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be provided. Invitations have been sent to all CTC clergy members born prior to 1954. Those clergy members and their spouses should plan to attend. We are pleased to say that Paula Whitbeck, CTC liaison with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, will provide leadership for this event, including a retirement projection for each participant so it is important to communicate timely your intention to attend. Please respond via email to Harvey Ozmer, CBO (harvey@ctcumc.org), or Shawn-Marie Riley, benefits administrator (shawn-marie@ctcumc.org), or by calling the Conference Office at 817-877-5222, no later than Friday, March 11.

Single Adult Ministry Spring Retreat: "We are God's Beloved" — April 1-3

Join singles in the Central Texas Conference and surrounding areas for this retreat April 1-3 at Prothro Center on Lake Texhoma. The retreat will be led by Phyllis McDougal, associate pastor at First UMC Fort Worth, and explore the following questions: How do you see the world? Are you busy and always on the run? Do you slow down enough to explore your own spirituality? Who are you really? Who is God? Do you know that you are a child of God? Laurie Simmons from the 11:11 band at First Fort Worth will provide the music throughout the weekend. Cost is $130 and that includes lodging for 2 nights and 4 meals (3 on Saturday and breakfast on Sunday) and the retreat expenses. Registration due by March 21. For additional information, contact Cindy Young at 817-924-9443 or check out the Tarrant Area Singles calendar with the flyer and registration at <http://www.ctcumc.org/pages/detail/970>.

One Great Hour of Sharing: Be There. Be Hope — Sunday, April 3

One Great Hour of Sharing is one of the 6 churchwide Special Sundays with offerings in the UMC. OGHS enable the UM Committee on Relief (UMCOR), the humanitarian arm of the denomination, to live out its mission to alleviate human suffering. OGHS gifts underwrite UMCOR's "costs of doing business," meaning that every penny of every gift you make to a specific UMCOR program will be spent on that project — not on office administration cost. The enable UMCOR to respond to natural or human-made disasters. The OGHS offering makes ministries available in the U.S. and across the globs. In 81 countries in all, you assure the UMC is in the lead to alleviate suffering through OGHS. Join UMs everywhere by encouraging your congregation to participate in the special offering that support UMCOR's vital work. Call 888-346-3862 to order envelopes and other resources for your congregation. They will be sent at no cost to your church.

Methodist Pastor Urging Measures to Prevent Deep Budget Cuts

John Elford, senior pastor at University UMC in Austin, sent a letter yesterday to more than 350 Texas UM churches "urging pastors and church members alike to take action to help prevent the deep cuts to education, social services, and other state programs that legislators are considering in the face of a $27 billion state budget shortfall," Mardi Wareham, a church spokeswoman said in an e-mail. — From The Statesman

Renewing the "County Seat" Church — March 29-30 at Bluff, Ark.

First UMC of Pine Bluff, Ark., will host this seminar March 29-30 designed to focus on specific strategies and proven methods to renew the county seat church, which is an exciting and continuing challenge. Leadership for the event includes:

Dr. Doug Anderson — executive director of the Bishop Rueben Job Center for Leadership Development at Dakota Wesleyan University; Rev. Marvin Arnpriester — pastor of Broadway UMC, Council Bluffs, Iowa with the team from Broadway UMC. Contact: Ann Cain at 1-870-535-0935 acain@fumcpba.com.

Culture of the Call Church Award — April 1 Deadline for Applications

The Foundation for Evangelism is now accepting nominations for the 2011 Culture of the Call Church Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize one local congregation of the UMC each year that has a history of having young people 35 or younger respond to God's call to full-time Christian service as a result of their being active in the life of that church. The Foundation wants to recognize and highlight churches that are helping to raise up generations of leaders with a passion for evangelism. The first Culture of the Call Church Award was presented in 2010. For more information or to submit a nomination visit www.foundationforevangelism.org. The deadline for applications is April 1. The selected church will be notified in early May and recognized at their 2011 annual conference.

Free Online Webinars Available to Help Congregations

The General Board of Discipleship's series of free online training sessions for local church leaders continues this month and next with webinars about issues that face church council members.

“Trustees: Stewards of Church Property” on March 24—The role of trustees is practical, legal and Biblical. Every trustee will benefit from this review of the responsibilities and reminder of effective ministry through this job.

“Easter Living for Church Leaders: Prayer and Faith” on April 28—Church leaders care deeply about their faith community so that sometimes the “doing” church work overwhelms “being” the church. Several church leaders will tell about their own experiences to inspire Easter renewal in leaders.

These training sessions provided by GBOD is made possible by support given to the World Service Fund. For more information about the webinars and free registration go online at www.gbod.org/committee_resources In addition, previous webinars for the Pastor Parish Relations Committee and for finance leaders are available for view at the website.

TACC & Partners Address Bullying — March 29

The Tarrant Area Community of Churches (TACC), an inter-church non-profit organization dedicated to connecting congregations and the community to affect and address unmet needs in Tarrant County, in partnership with Brite Divinity School, First Congregational Church and Dr. Mitzi Ellington, announces an upcoming program to help clergy and other leaders who work with and serve those affected by bullying. The program, called "Beyond Bullying: Empowering Children, Youth & Adults to Win with Each Other," is part of TACC's Elephant in the Room Series and will be held March 29 at First Congregational Church (4201 Trail Lake Drive, Fort Worth). The doors open at 6:30 p.m., and the program runs from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Fifteen to 20% of students are victims of bullying, and it is estimated that one in six adults is bullied in the workplace. This Elephant in the Room program will provide participants with a faithful response to bullying, the dynamics that are involved in bullying, strategies for assisting those impacted by bullying and community resources related to addressing the issue. Speakers for the seminar include: Kathryn Everest, an expert on bullying who is responsible for helping to design Fort Worth ISD's bullying prevention program (It's Not Okay) and Cody Sanders, ordained Baptist minister, licensed counselor and Ph.D. candidate in Pastoral Care at Brite Divinity School. To attend "Beyond Bullying," please contact TACC at 817.737.5554 or www.tarrantareacc.org. Advance reservations ($15) are required and registration is available online at www.tarrantareacc.org/Events.aspx.

Suicide Survivors: The Healing Journey After Loss

Suicide Survivors: The Healing Journey After Loss is a grief recovery program for family members and friends who have lost a loved to suicide. Groups form every six to eight weeks in different locations in the Central Texas area. A new group will be forming in the Spring. Groups of eight to 10 meet for two hours weekly for eight weeks. Meetings are facilitated by a mental health professional and a trained survivor. There is no charge for this service. For more information call 817-698-9955 or e-mail suicidesurvivors@myfumc.org.

Free Dementia Education Seminar — April 13

A free seminar for those who are dealing with dementia and needing to create moments of joy will be offered Wednesday, April 13, from 5:30-6 p.m. for registration and light dinner and 6-7 p.m. for the seminar at Arden Courts Memory Care Community (1501 NE Green Oaks Blvd., Arlington 76006). The guest speaker is Jolene Brackey, founder of Enhanced Moments and author of Creating Moments of Joy. Sometimes dementia caregivers get too caught up in day-to-day details, often times forgetting to appreciate the better moments with their loved ones. While it may be impossible to create a perfectly wonderful day, you can create perfectly wonderful moments. During this seminar, Brackey will pass along powerful tools that can create positive outcomes. Adult day care will be provided by qualified staff. Please ask for this service when making your reservation. To RSVP, call 817-795-1700 or email arlington@arden-courts.com.

Ladies Day Out at First Round Rock: The Sweet Life Café — April 9

The Sweet Life Café, Where Women Savor Time with God, Family and Friends, will be held on Saturday, April 9, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. It will feature inspirational speakers, a variety of breakout sessions, music, lunch and lots of laughter. Cost is $40. Registration is available online at <http://fumc-rr.org>. Topics range from Internet Safety for Families to Zumba to Prayer to the Five Love Languages...something for every woman. Visit the website for all the details and plan to join us on April 9.

2nd Annual Jerusalem 33 A.D. — April 21 & 22

Tried • Convicted • Crucified • Resurrected

This special two-night event is being offered once again as First UMC Killeen presents the miracles, trials, crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ in their second annual Jerusalem 33 A.D., 5-7 p.m. Thursday, April 21 and 22 at Methodist Park, southwest corner of their new church campus at 3501 E. Elms in Killeen. The community is invited to witness this Passion play and walk side-by-side with villagers, Roman soldiers, Judas, King Herod and Jesus himself.

Youth Mission Opportunity in Palmer — June 23-26

First UMC Palmer announces PUMP 2011! PUMP (Palmer United Mission Project) is a four-day mission weekend sponsored by the church for youth groups from across Texas and surrounding areas. Dates for PUMP 2011 are June 23-26. Youth entering grades 4-12 and adults alike are given the opportunity to serve those in need living in the Palmer area. In addition to the mission projects, participants will experience small group study, meaningful daily worship, awesome music and inspired talks. There are many planned activities designed to help everyone let loose, experience God, spread His love and have fun. This is an excellent mission trip for first-timers and/or small youth groups. For more information, contact Debbi Mitchell by at 214-683-1501 or palmerpump@yahoo.com. Space is limited so let the church know if you are interested and a reservation brochure will be sent to you! Reservation deadline: May 15.

Depression Connection: Understanding, Help and Hope

When suffering from depression, bipolar or a related disorder, learn what helps and what hurts. Research confirms that people who participate in regular support groups often experience a better quality of life and a greater likelihood of recovery from the symptoms of depression, anxiety disorder and bipolar disorder. Depression Connection support group meets Tuesdays from 6:30-8 p.m. in Room 4 of the Heritage Campus of First UMC Grapevine (4344 Heritage Ave.). The group is structured to include approximately 10 individuals and a licensed, trained facilitator. In addition to an opportunity to communicate about one's individual concerns, an educational component is included in each meeting. Questions about Depression Connection? Contact Katherine Hunter at 817-481-2559 x130 or katherineh@fumcg.org.

Career Transition Support Group at First Hurst

NETworkers is a career transition support group at First UMC Hurst for those who are unemployed and actively looking for jobs. NETworkers meets in the church parlor every Monday for about 1 ½ hours beginning at 9 a.m. Knowing that unemployment is such a difficult situation, the church wants to do something to offer emotional support as well as practical tips for social networking, resume writing, etc. They often have guest speakers. Contact: Sandra Hill at 817-282-7384 ext. 17.

Depression Seminar in Your Church — FREE

Mental Health Facts from the Depression Connection Team: The World Health Organization has reported that four of the 10 leading causes of disability in the U.S. and other developed countries are mental disorders. By 2020, major depressive illness will be the leading cause of disability in the world for women and children. Most people diagnosed with a serious mental illness can experience relief from their symptoms by actively participating in an individual treatment plan. With no cost to your church, the CTC Committee on Mental Health Concerns and Depression Connection Team will provide a seminar for your church. To inquire, contact Tony Campbell at 817-810-9599 or tony@depressionconnection.org.

Youth Director/Minister/Pastor/Coordinator

Discovery, a quick-growing and vibrant church in Hutto - just north of Austin, seeks a Youth Director/Minister/Pastor/Coordinator (you'd get to choose the title). The community has exploded in the last decade, growing from a rural community of 1200, to a suburban community of Austin.

The primary purpose of this position is to lead students in a relationship with Christ and each other. This church has never had a paid youth position, and this means that you will be building a ministry from the ground up. This is a part time position, but we anticipate, with the right person, and by God's grace, this could transition to a full time position. Summer hours will probably be more than school-year hours, given mission trips, retreats, and summer camps. Please send a cover letter and resume to paul.gravley@huttodiscovery.org. In your cover letter, please write a paragraph describing what you're passionate about, and how that passion would impact your work in this position. If email is not an option, please send the same requirements to Discovery UMC, c/o Paul Gravley, P.O. Box 426, Hutto 78634.
