

Civil Rights Road Trip

January 16-19, 2009

An event for YOUTH of the Central Texas Conference

Space is limited to the first 55 who register!

The Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s was a time of uncertainty and change. Much of the change that happened was brought about by young people.

The Civil Rights Road Trip is a weekend designed to help today's young people connect to the radical possibilities their lives hold for the Kingdom of God.

On this trip we will visit several historic civil rights locations and museums, including:

- Little Rock Central High School
- The National Civil Rights Museum
- Birmingham Civil Rights Museum
- The National Voting Rights Museum
- the Edmund Pettus Bridge
- 16th Street Baptist Church and other sites and experiences

Cost: $100 per person

Deadline to sign-up: December 30th

Registration form is available here (www.ctcumc.org/students)
