Join the Central Texas Conference United Methodist Volunteers in Mission for a special event to train dedicated mission team leaders.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission can be a vital tool in helping you and your church be more effective as partners in God's mission to a hurting and broken world, whether you take a team down the street, to your own community or across the globe. Many local churches - maybe even yours - are now planning mission projects for the coming year.

Effective team leader training can make the vital difference between a successful mission and an experience better forgotten. Prepared team leaders have the tools, insight and knowledge to successfully lead groups in a mission experience that glorifies God through service done effectively.

UMVIM team leader training is for beginners and seasoned leaders alike! Learn tips for all aspects of project planning, group theological reflection, team building, insuring your team, and fostering a transformational mission experience.

Rex Layfield, left, led a conference-wide adult mission team to Lake Charles, Louisiana in February 2009.
